Fertility Nurse

Description

Fertility Nurse

Private Fertility Clinic – Marylebone

Full time – Permanent

£40,000 – £45,000

King Healthcare are currently assisting a Private Fertility Clinic in their search for an experienced Fertility Nurse. This client specialises in Fertility with treatments such as IVF, ICSI, IUI – Investigations, treatments, preservation and genetic health.

The Role

In this post, you will be delivering world class patient care including nurse consultations, treatment plans, information counselling, dealing with telephone and email enquiries. This position won't include the procedures in theatres as there is a separate team for this.

The Candidate

The ideal candidate for this position will be an experienced fertility nurse already with at least 6 months to a year experience. The candidate will need to be prepared to work an occasional weekend shift, potentially 4x long days per week and hold an on-call phone occasionally – this is shared between the team and can be discussed at interview for further explanation on how it all works.

Salary and Benefits

The salary on offer for this position is between £40,000 – £45,000 dependent on experience. In addition are several benefits including generous annual leave, private pension scheme as well as others.
