HCA – Gynaecology

Description

HCA – Gynaecology
Private Clinic London
£28,000 – £30,000
Full time – Permanent

King Healthcare are currently assisting a leading private clinic in their search for a HCA. This is a brand new private clinic opening in London, with an outpatient clinic specialising in Gynae and Women's Health.

The Role

This role will involve chaperoning patients during consultations, phlebotomy – taking patient blood samples, specimen management and working closely with the nurses and consultants to take the patient through their care plan.

The Candidate

We are seeking an experienced HCA who has worked within an Outpatient setting previously. The ideal applicant will have worked within a private hospital or clinic setting. You'll need to have strong phlebotomy skills and ideally an NVQ Level 3. Exposure to Gynaecology/Women's Health specialities would be advantageous and but not essential.

Salary and Benefits

The salary on offer for this position is between £28,000 – £30,000 dependent on experience. In addition are several benefits including generous annual leave, private pension scheme and private health insurance.
