Surgical Nurse (Hybrid) – Private Cosmetic Surgery

Description

Surgical Nurse (Hybrid) – Private Cosmetic Surgery

Central London

Approx £45,000 | Hybrid (Hospital + work from home) | Ideal Start: End of May

Full Time or Part Time considered

Are you a Surgical Nurse looking to step away from rigid structures and into a more autonomous, patient-focused environment?

This is an opportunity to join a boutique style, high-end cosmetic surgery practice, working directly with a leading surgeon in a small, high-end team delivering exceptional care to private, high-net-worth patients.

The Role

This is not your typical nursing role.

You'll take ownership of the entire patient journey, delivering a concierge-style experience from pre-op through to post-op recovery:

- Pre-assessment and patient co-ordination
- Supporting on surgical days and discharges
- Post-operative care, follow-ups and wound management
- Patient advice and assistance throughout journey

What Makes This Different

- Autonomy: No micromanagement – manage your own workload
- Hybrid working: Split your time between home and hospital
- High-trust culture: Small team, no hierarchy
- Luxury environment: Patients investing £60k+ expect the very best

About You

- Experience in private healthcare, cosmetic or plastic surgery (or NHS with the right mindset)
- Confident in pre & post-op care and wound management
- Comfortable working independently and taking ownership
- Polished, professional and able to build rapport with high-end clients
- Commercially aware with a patient-first mindset

Things to Know

- This is a standalone role within a small team
- Limited progression – ideal for someone wanting stability and ownership
